

A Word Or 2

“Our own Black nation, the Republic of New Afrika, is Our only Real solution”

Russia vs Ukraine = White Power

When Russia attacked Afghanistan in the 1980s, progressive voices throughout the world criticized Fidel Castro for not speaking out against Russia's attack against an independent nation. When Russia attacked Ukraine a week ago, progressive voices were quick to proclaim support of Russia's attack against an independent nation. No matter how you look at it, this represents a major shift in the consciousness of progressive voices in recent years and demonstrates how practical alliances can generate an ideological fog that allows people to lose track of the essential nature of their struggle, if they are not careful.

Everybody knew how much Fidel's Cuba was dependent on Russian support and collaboration. However, to the progressives of that time, that was no excuse for Fidel's failure to condemn Russia's aggression against Afghanistan. But today, progressives are silent as leaders like Miguel Díaz-Canel of Cuba and Nicolás Maduro of Venezuela voice their support of Russia's invasion of another country. It is generally known that they rely on Russian support and collaboration, but if Fidel was criticized for not calling Russia out 40 years ago, those who are not calling Russia out today should be criticized as well.

Practical alliances can generate an ideological fog that allows people to lose track of the essential nature of their struggle, if they are not careful. It is important that we do not let fundamental principles get lost when we have ties to a party that commits a hostile act because there is an entire ideological foundation that can be undermined when we do. Persons like Fidel, Díaz-Canel and Maduro have a practical reason for failing to condemn the aggressor, but that does not reduce the harm they do to the fundamental revolutionary doctrine they otherwise espouse.

Black People do not stand to gain a thing by that white power struggle taking place in Ukraine. The western Europeans are white racists, and the eastern Europeans are white racists. The only good that can come out of it as far as Black People are concerned, is if they wipe each other out.

Black People in the USofA are New Afrikans

Unfortunately, We have all but lost the battle for the minds of Black People in the USofA. It's to the point where continuing to wage a defensive battle is useless; We can only regain what is Ours by going on the offensive. Part of that offensive posture should be putting more time and effort into making all of Us aware of the importance of Us identifying as New Afrikans We have to put more time and effort into making all of Us aware of the importance of Us identifying as New Afrikans. For that reason we are encouraging people to make use of a 5 second slogan that states the following: “We are Black People. Say it loud, New Afrikan and Proud.” What it does is connect Our Blackness and Our New Afrikan nationality. It is easy to remember because it revives James Brown's song from years ago. Additionally, it does not require any Black person to change his or her beliefs or hopes for the future of Black People unless they prefer to identify nationally with the USofA. So do as much as you can to help us expand Sisters' and Brothers' understanding of who they are and who We are.
