

Black Power Economics System

Black People Can Achieve Economic Independence And Political Sovereignty.

Objective:

Establish A Viable Independent Black Power Economics System

Major Hurdles:

- (1) Most Black People Seem To Be Content With How White Power's Economic System Satisfies Their Wants And Needs.
- (2) The Black Power Economics System Is Just Developing And Is Presently Unable To Satisfy Many Of Black People's Wants And Needs.
- (3) Black People Show A Lack Of Racial Esteem And Demonstrate Qualities Consistent With A Group Inferiority Complex.

Establish a Viable Independent Black Power Economics System

Realization

An Independent Economics System needs to be linked to an Independent Political System.

The Process:

We Do Not Enjoy The Luxury of Allowing An Independent Black Economy To Evolve Naturally. We Must BUILD An Independent Black Economy / Economic System. Each individual person must ask “What do I know how to make or do that can contribute to an economic order?” And each person must ask others that same question.

(1) To BUILD An Independent Black Economy, We Must Generate Some Wants, Needs, Goods And Services In Ways That Are Not Normally Associated With Economic Processes. Collectively, We Start Several Steps Simultaneously.
